

not much work on hand, and could, therefore, run it through the press in a very short time.

Very respectfully,

Yours

John Knapp

58
Isaac Knapp

A. S. Office Boston

Boston, June 24, 1836.

Rev. and Dear Sir:

The first edition of your Lectures have been out of print for some time. Do you feel disposed to revise, for a second edition? and if so, will you allow me to print it? We have frequent calls for the work, and I should be willing to print at half profits, or to take it as a printer's job. If a second edition should be published I think I have a claim, at least, to the work as printer, provided I do it at as low a rate as other printers. Will you write me on the subject? I have